

NOTICE: BODY PROTECTOR

MAY 2, 2019

HARNESS Racing New South Wales (HRNSW) Stewards have been made aware that a number of drivers are currently wearing approved body protectors inside out for comfort reasons.

Effective immediately, all approved body protectors must be correctly fitted whilst driving or riding a horse which does not include wearing the body protector inside out.

Drivers are advised that failure to comply with this requirement may result in a breach of AHRR 238 and penalties being imposed.

Australian Harness Racing Rule (AHRR) 238 states the following:

AHRR 238. A person shall not fail to comply with any order, direction or requirement of the Controlling Body or the Stewards relating to harness racing or to the harness racing industry.
